

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

Middlesex, ss. PROBATE COURT

To all persons interested in the estate of Dorothy C. Stone late of Wayland in said County, deceased.

A petition has been presented to said Court for probate of certain instruments purporting to be the last will and one codicil of said deceased by J. Sidney Stone of Wayland in said County, praying that he be appointed executor thereof, without giving a surety on his bond.

If you desire to object thereto you or your attorney should file a written appearance in said Court at Cambridge before ten o'clock in the forenoon on the seventeenth day of April 1956, the return day of this citation.

Witness, John C. Leggat, Esquire, First Judge of said Court this twenty-second day of March in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six.

John J. Foley, Register.

The above is a citation giving notice that the will of Dorothy C. Stone will be presented for allowance on April 17, 1956. Under the statutes it is necessary to notify all those to whom any legacy is given, as well as the heirs. Legacies are payable without interest within a year. Every effort will be made to pay legacies at as early a date as possible.

You are mentioned in the following manner.

"I give and bequeath the sum of Two Thousand (2000) Dollars to the Town of Wayland, to be held in trust, the income to be used for the purchase of books for the Wayland Public Library, with the hope that it will make possible the purchase of more books than might otherwise be purchased, this being intended as a slight appreciation of the pleasure and use I have had of the Library during my residence in Wayland."
